Maker Notes & Tips:

- Always knit a gauge swatch before starting to ensure your garment matches the intended sizing and fits beautifully.
- Use locking stitch markers at key points, especially when shaping raglans, to keep your stitch counts accurate and rows aligned.
- Instructions for larger sizes are given in parentheses; circle or highlight your specific size numbers before beginning for easier tracking.

✨ FINISHING, BLOCKING & GARMENT CARE

✨ Weaving Ends & Assembly

After you've finished all your knitting, take a moment to neatly weave in any remaining yarn tails using your yarn needle. This gives your beautiful canyon mist knit turtleneck pullover a polished, professional look. Secure all seams carefully so they are strong and invisible from the right side.

✨ Blocking for Perfect Drape

Blocking is like magic for knitted garments! Gently steam block your completed sweater or immerse it in cool water, gently squeeze out excess, then pin it flat to the finished measurements. This step helps relax the fibers, evens out your stitches, and ensures your pullover has the perfect drape and shape. Let it dry completely before handling.

✨ Washing & Garment Care

To keep your handcrafted canyon mist knit turtleneck pullover looking its best, always hand-wash it in cool water using a gentle, wool-safe detergent. Avoid harsh scrubbing or twisting. After washing, roll the sweater in a clean towel to gently press out excess moisture. Then, lay it flat on a clean, dry surface or a mesh drying rack to air dry, away from direct sunlight or heat. Proper care will ensure your cozy pullover stays beautiful for years to come!
